About the Artist

I have had a successful career in a variety of artistic disciplines. For several years I was a portrait sketch artist on the Greek island of Corfu. Then I became a signwriter and developed a reputation as a pictorial, fairground and mural artist.

In 1998 I showcased my House of Murals in the Brighton Festival which received 1600 visitors. It included a trompe l'oeil tropical garden, a Romanesque panorama and a fantasy bathroom with painted walls and ceiling.

In 2000 I moved to Sydney and earned a living as a full-time artist concentrating on my own work. I was selected as artist-in-residence for Sydney Heritage Fleet and was invited to become a member of the Australian Society of Marine Artists. I became an exhibiting member of the Royal Art Society, Sydney and was a finalist and highly commended at various art shows and competitions in Australia. I also illustrated books, one of which was shortlisted for an award.

Having returned to England in 2010 I now live in Topsham, Devon

My work has been selected for the South West Academy (SWAC), the Royal Institute of Oil Painters (ROI), the Royal Society of British Artists (RBA) and the Royal Society of Marine Artists (RSMA).

In September 2021 I opened my house as part of Devon Open Studios.

As well as exhibiting I publish my own art prints, greetings cards, calendars, postcards and mugs and I'm regularly asked to do commissions.
